

SOCIETY IN CHESTER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTER, VA., April 28.—The hall which fell here with a heavy rain combined on Sunday afternoon did but little damage to crops and vegetables. Clover was beat down some, but will recover, and the aftermath of the fruit. Pear and plum trees being well advanced in foliage, the leaves have been a protection to the fruit against both hail and frost, and experience shows that where fruit has advanced beyond the budding and the blossoming process it takes good from weather to kill the fruit. A little ice was seen in places, but more ice and severe frosts occurred last year, and there were heavy crops of peaches, pears and plums realized. Between this place and Petersburg there was no hail. The prospect for a high school for Chesterfield is engaging the minds of the county people, and it is generally conceded that Chester, being a center for three railway and one electric road, with railroads, and intersecting the county north, south, east and west, with four churches, telegraph, telephone, mail and other facilities, and nearly central between Richmond and Petersburg, is the best and most accessible point for its location, as nearly every part of the county can be easily reached by rail. The village is growing considerably, and with a resident physician and drug store, no better site can be obtained for such a school, where many of the pupils can be boarded from home, and have all facilities and the influence supplied. Besides this there is no bar-room in the place, and no danger resulting from that source. The public school examinations are always held at this place, and in May the examinations for this year will be held here.

Mr. W. C. Truettner, of this place, having purchased a large tract of wooded land near Roblox, in this county, is contemplating surrendering his position as clerk in a Richmond bank, to undertake on his purchase, while lumber is up. Lumber will be in such demand till the Jamestown Exposition needs are supplied.

While the death rate at Chester has been so low in the past that very few people are contemplating departing this life, the question is up here to establish an up-to-date cemetery grounds, which the hills and slopes of Chester are so adapted for, and it is hoped that some corporation will be organized to prepare a place of resting for some of the oldest inhabitants, who know they must die. There is sentiment here that the lawmakers should provide a State enactment, providing for a public cemetery in every magisterial district, to be maintained by a tax levy, so that natives, as well as immigrants to the State, may have a decent place of burial, which will always be kept in good condition, instead of the old family burying grounds, which are fast going to decay and are neglected by the constant changing of owners.

College Publications.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C., April 28.—The new catalogue, which is just ready for distribution, shows that there are in Trinity College twenty graduate students, and that the senior class consists of forty-six members. This is an unusually large class.

The publications of the college are an important feature of the college's activities. In addition to the books written by members of the faculty, the following publications show something of the work done, outside of the regular routine of college work.

The South Atlantic Quarterly is published at Trinity College. It has no official connection with the college, but the movement which led to its establishment originated with Trinity graduates, and a great deal of its support has come from Trinity professors. It was established by the "90's," a patriotic society of the college, but is now under the control of an independent company. The first number was issued in January, 1902. It is edited by Professors Edwin Mims and William H. Glasson.

An annual publication of historical papers is issued by the Trinity Historical Society. It is devoted to local history, and contains notable papers written by members of the society and documents of an interesting and instructive nature. Five annual numbers have been published. The society has begun to establish an endowed publication fund, the proceeds of which will be used to support the society's historical periodical.

The Archive is a literary magazine, published monthly by the senior class.

To Get More Strength from Your Food

LOTS of people are starving with a full stomach.
You know, it's not how much we eat, but how we digest that makes us strong, or brainy, or successful. When the bowels are filled with undigested food we may be a great deal worse off than if we were half starved for want of food.

Because, food that stays too long in the bowels decays there, just as if it stayed too long in the open air.

One Cascaret at a time will properly cleanse a foul breath, or coated tongue, thus proving clearly its ready, steady, sure, but mild and effective action.

A coming headache can be ward off, in short order, by a single Cascaret, and the cause removed.

Heartburn, Gas-belching, Acid-risings in the throat, and Colicky feeling are sure signs of Bowel trouble from food poisons, and should be dealt with promptly.

One Cascaret will stop the coming trouble, move on the Bowel load, and free the Digestive Juices, if that one Cascaret is taken as soon as the first signs are noticed.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them—not "Physic" to pamper them.

There's only one kind of Artificial Exercise for the Bowel-Muscles.

Its name is "CASCARETS," and its price is Ten Cents a box.

Cascarets act like Exercise on the Muscles of the Bowels, and make them stronger every time they force these Muscles to act naturally.

The stronger these Muscles propel the food, the stronger does the friction of the food act on the flow of Digestive Juices.

The more of these Juices that act on food, the more Nutrient does that food turn into, and the richer nourishment do the little Suction Pumps of the Intestines draw out of it.

One Hundred

Per Cent Discount

is what you obtain if you buy now for 50c

a 24 oz. $1.00 bottle of Fuller's

Solution of Ozone

with a coupon for a 25c free package of

Standard Celery Tea

This offer is good for another 45 days and then you will have to pay $1.00. We don't give our remedy away because self-respecting people don't like being made objects of charity. But we see no harm in offering you for a limited time $1.25 worth of medicine for 50c. We do this to prove our faith in our preparations.

Fuller's Ozone

is the greatest known

Tonic

for the relief of

Germ Diseases

and will positively cure such troubles as Asthma, Catarrh, Coughs, Bronchitis, LaGrippe, Hay Fever, Influenza, Eczema, Skin Diseases, Stomach Troubles, Fevers, General Debility and Women's Diseases.

For sale only at the store of Owens & Minor Drug Co., Richmond, Va.

Standard Ozone Co., Wellsville, N. Y. Manufactured only by

The Archive is a literary magazine, published monthly by the senior class. It is a medium for the publication of papers prepared by the students of the college. The magazine strives to give expression to the higher life and thought of the students. It is in charge of S. B. Underwood, editor-in-chief, and W. M. Smith, business manager. The editor-in-chief and business manager are elected by the senior class. The other members of the editorial staff are appointed by the editor-in-chief. The Chronicle is a college newspaper, published every Tuesday during the school year by the Columbian and Hesperian Literary Societies. It was founded in December, 1905. It is edited by H. G. Ford, editor-in-chief; U. N. Hoffman, associate editor, and a staff of assistant editors. The business managers are T. G. Stem and W. J. Justice.

Next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock the Columbian Literary Society will give an entertainment in honor of the old members and honorary members of the society, a number of whom will be present. The regular exercises will be suspended, and there will be speeches from several members of the society.

FRONT ROYAL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRONT ROYAL, VA., April 28.—Miss Dorothy Carr, of Winchester, is visiting her cousin, Miss Jean Richards, of River-ton.

Miss Nettie Kennerly, of White Post, is visiting Miss Sarah Macatee.

Hon. M. J. Fulton has returned home from Richmond, where he has been trying some very important law cases.

E. Douglas Jackson, of the engineering department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, at Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jackson.

Mrs. Phillip Powers, of Berryville, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Carter.

Miss Mattie Anderson has returned home after spending the winter at Bridgewater.

Jas. B. Gearing, of Cumberland, Md., has been the guest of his mother.

Northumberland Society

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HEATHSVILLE, VA., April 28.—In another ten days the farmers of the Northumberland Neck will have harvested their entire corn crop. A very large acreage has been sown, and unless bad weather prevails during the harvesting time, forage will be plentiful among the farmers during the latter part of the summer and the fall. Chiffonieres or German corn are becoming one of the most important crops of this section, and the mainstay of the farmers. Ten years ago the crop was practically unknown in the Northern Neck, but each year sees a larger acreage of it, until this year the acreage is much larger than it has ever been before. The crop makes excellent feed, and has many advantages over other hay crops. It is usually sown in September, and grows throughout the winter. It is very prolific and turns out a very large yield. But what makes it so popular with the farmers is that it is the earliest of all the crops, being ready for harvest by the first part of May, and comes at a time when forage is becoming scarce. Another advantage is that it can be cut off in time to plant the corn crop on the same land. This is a big advantage, as it keeps the land from being idle for half the year and enables the farmers to make double money off of their fields. But the crop has not been raised for feeding purposes alone. It has been found to act as a fertilizer and enriches the land very much. Many farmers raise it for this alone, not cutting it at all, but turning the crop in, in May, and planting the corn over it. It is in this way that many of the most fertile pieces of land in this section, have been recovered from poor, sandy hill-sides upon which no fertilizer could be used. The cost of the crop is comparatively small, and it is very easy to be raised. No fertilizer is used with it, and it is very prolific, even in the poorest kinds of land. It is partly this which has made it so popular among the people.

BUCKINGHAM

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUCKINGHAM, VA., April 28.—Dr. T. P. Lacy, of the Episcopal Church, held services in the Presbyterian Church Tuesday, last night and Wednesday, and on both occasions took up a collection for the San Francisco relief fund.

Mr. Will Hall, Jr., has been operated on for appendicitis and has been visited by his father, Mr. T. B. Hall while in the hospital at Lynchburg.

The new railroad from Gordonsville to Danville, if it crosses James River at Brems, will run through Buckingham, and the freight, north and south, must be materially lessened, to say nothing of the convenience in passenger travel when Virginia has a road running north and south. Strange to say round trip tickets from points in the south has to be bought to some other place than the larger cities, such as Richmond and Lynchburg, to get the usual reduction in price, and passengers coming in from Texas, although landing at Lynchburg, have to buy a ticket to Charlottesville.

Irving Camp, Confederate veterans, will meet here on the 2nd Monday in May and Hon. James Marshall (Cyclone Jim) has been invited by the commandant, to come and deliver an address.

SMITHFIELD

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SMITHFIELD, VA., April 28.—The tournament and ball held at Smithfield last week was quite successful, both as to the enjoyment given the young folks and the amount of money realized.

Mrs. E. H. Cofer has returned from her visit to Mrs. Richard Melwain, Jr., of Norfolk.

Master Richmond Maury and Misses Ella Maury and Louise Howard have returned to their homes in Norfolk after a very enjoyable visit to friends in town.

Mr. A. D. Carter has sold his house and lot on Main Street to Mr. J. Johnson. The price realized was $4,000.

Mrs. Mountjoy will soon finish her house at Rescue, to which place she will remove after selling her property in town.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

DRAKE'S BRANCH

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DRAKE'S BRANCH, VA., April 28.—The new handsome brick bank building is completed (Bank of Chase City). The vault, electric time safe, and the entire fixtures and furniture are in place.

The bank is doing a good business, and is very creditable to this thriving, enterprising town.

The Tobacco-Growers' Association has stored in the Dunlop and Scott warehouses up to date some six hundred tons of tobacco. It is believed at least a million of pounds will be stored during the tobacco season.

The two warehouses have sold up to date more tobacco than was sold during the entire last year's tobacco season. There is a large crop of buyers. Prices have been satisfactory. The facilities for handling are good, and the market for dark tobacco is as good as any in the State.

The town is growing rapidly. During the last twelve months it has lost twenty-five, or thirty thousand dollars has been invested in real estate building of business houses and residences, most of them handsome. The population has about doubled itself in the last two or three years.

The new siding recently put in by the Southern is quite an improvement and a great convenience to shippers.

THE MECKLENBURG

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHASSE CITY, VA., April 28.—The gold-diggers of Mecklenburg are filled with pleasure, either of the strenuous kind, as tennis, golf, bowling and rink, or of a milder sort, as swinging in hammocks among the pines, or walking in the woods to look for wild flowers. The spice of a little flirtation is not lacking, for the blessed summer has no past or future, and, as Kipling says, "flirtation does not wait for a young lady to be in love, it waits for a young lady to be in love."

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

One of the chief charms of the summer is the fact that it is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life. The summer is a time when one can get away from the cares of the world, and enjoy the simple pleasures of life.

Compare the Prices, See the Values, they are Right

Chiffonieres

Oak, Walnut, Mahogany

Here you will find Chiffonieres at $5.00

The kind you need for your every-day needs.

Others at $7.50 to $60

For the Baby

See the many new styles; it's wonderful how such handsome Carts can be sold so cheaply—THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

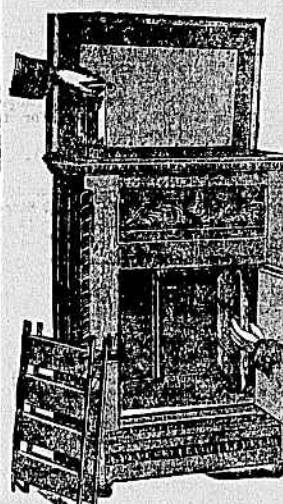

Rothert & Co. Sell the Best for the LEAST MONEY

Do You Know Why We Sell so Many Parlor Suites?

It's no secret, we buy in large quantities. We're satisfied with a modest profit.

Pretty 5-Piece Suites at $25.00

Monarch Refrigerators

Differ from all others; they not only save you money, but your ice will last longer and require less attention than any other make; and they cost no more than you are asked to pay for inferior Refrigerators.

Saratoga

A good, safe Refrigerator at a small cost. We'll warrant them.

Sitka

An old favorite. Its durability and superiority are proven facts.

The sunlight. A long way off is a white dress, down the hill by the spring house, and yes, that black and white by it is a coat, the "eternal masculine" is ever present. Now, those two have mastered the art of passing the time away. He is probably quoting tenderly the words of that old proverb, "Omnis Hicarym." Book of verses underneath the bow, a Jug of Wine, a loaf of bread—and thou Beside me singing in the Wilderness."

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

John G. Wilson & Co. have sold out their large store on Commerce Street to Mr. William Gray, of Suffolk, for whom the business will be carried on by his brother, Mr. Jeff Gray.

The services at old St. Luke's Church last Sunday evening were much improved by the halftone. The horses attached to the vehicles in the grove became excited, and the men had to run out in the storm to prevent them from breaking loose. Several got a good wetting.

A. Gibson, of Richmond, spent a night at Mrs. George H. Russell's, and proceeded to Christ Church, Millwood, last Sunday.

Mr. J. Townsend Burwell left on Wednesday to attend a wedding in Annapolis, and after that to visit a friend in New Jersey.

Mrs. Edward Gay Butler, of Annerfield, reached home on Wednesday from New York, where she had been spending some weeks with her sister, Mrs. West.

Miss Elizabeth Lee, of Gloucester, who has been staying at Mrs. Wray P. Whitling at Pleasant Hill, left on Friday for Berryville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mullikin, of Page Brook, and Mrs. C. H. Turner, Jr., went on Thursday, to Washington, for a short stay in that city. Mrs. Turner will leave on Friday for her home in St. Louis.

Miss Mamie Nelson, who has been spending the winter with relatives in Little Rock, Ark., is expected at her home, Long Branch, near Millwood, about this time.

Mr. Benjamin O'Fallon, of St. Louis, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. William P. Randolph, near Millwood.

Mr. Esten Randolph, Jr., of Richmond, is at the home of his father, Mr. William P. Randolph for a short stay.

Miss Tybil Burwell is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

The afternoon tea given recently at Carter by Mrs. Henry C. Watkins to Miss Annie Vandegrift, of Gloucester, was a most enjoyable affair.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 28.—Local society circles are deeply interested in the invitations which have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stenerson to the marriage of their daughter, Louise Natalie, to Dr. August J. Kloborg. The wedding will take place Saturday, the 29th, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride-elect's parents. Miss Stenerson is an attractive young lady, and Dr. Kloborg is a native of Texas, who is practicing his profession in Washington City.

The bachelors of Charlotte will give a dinner and a dance Monday evening in honor of the many visiting young ladies. The dinner will be served in the Southern Manufacturers' Club, and the dance will take place in the ball-room of the Colonial Club.

Miss Helen Brem entertained at euchre at her home in Dilworth Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Edna McClure.

Miss Louise Wadsworth entertained at her home on North College Street Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Edna Lockwood.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Gil Wyllie, of New York, announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Edna Harris McClure, to Mr. Thomas Branch Macdonald, of Richmond.

Miss McClure has made her home in Charlotte for the past year with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Brockenbrough, and has made a host of friends here.

Mrs. J. C. Montgomery entertained at a dinner at her home on South Tryon Street Monday morning in compliment to Miss Shirley Montgomery, of Concord.

Odd Dressers

Oak, mahogany, maple, walnut.

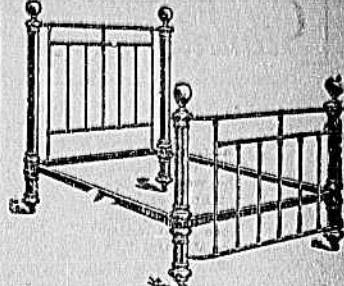

Washstands

to Match

Wardrobes in all finishes, mirror doors or panel.

An examination of our Chamber Suites will clearly show the superiority of our stock.

We show the latest. We price them low. Every dollar you invest here means money well spent. You'll find us willing to TRUST YOU.

Iron Beds, Brass Beds, Cribs, Cots, Mantel Beds

Our stock is complete, all styles, colors and sizes.

We can furnish an iron bed, white enameled, with springs and mattress for $5.00

Sells at other stores for $6.50.

Rothert & Co.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, STOVES.

FOURTH & BROAD STS., RICHMOND, VA.

The popularity of this store shows Public Confidence, and that is the Proudest Distinction of the establishment.

The public believes in

Rothert & Co.,

and Rothert & Co. believe in the public.